Our Trip to India

In February, we made a trip to India to visit the Blessings Academy in Yeasom Village, Manipur. Although we had seen pictures of the site, nothing could prepare us for that first glimpse of the school's strong brick structure standing amongst village buildings made of bamboo and pieces of tin. The school rests on the side of a hill in between valleys and hills harboring rice paddy fields and roaming cattle. Yeasom Village is home to about 100 adults and 70 children. Several identical villages are interspersed within a 10 mile radius, but there is one huge difference between those villages and Yeasom...they don't have a school.

67 children from ages 5 to 12 are currently attending the Blessings Academy and at least 30 more from surrounding villages are on a waiting list. The school can't accept any more students at this time because there is nowhere to house them until the children's home is finished. All funds have been raised for the home, the ground has been leveled, and materials have been purchased. The construction is on schedule to be completed for the start of the Fall 2012 term. The first phase of the children's home will be able to hold 100 students, but we anticipate this number will be reached quickly and a second story will need to be added to the children's home in the near future.

Over 50 children still need sponsorship! Check out page 2 of this newsletter for an example of 2 such kids!

As always, 100% of your donations go towards construction and operation of children's schools and homes.

Sponsor a Child!

Children who are not sponsored must provide their own food and shelter!

You can make a HUGE difference in the life of a community by sponsoring a child attending the Blessings Academy. Through your sponsorship, you can help provide admission fees, daily food, and housing for a child in need!

Leveled ground for children's home site to be built this Fall.

Please prayerfully consider how you can help out The NICCE Foundation. We cannot continue to build these schools and touch lives without your loving generosity. And what is the purpose of our existence on this earth if it is not to love one another?

"Thank God for the hope he has given us. I, the mother of Kimshung, got married to a poor man but he is a believer and we love each other very much. We are in poverty and face a lot of difficulties. We are blessed with 6 children. We find it very difficult to support all of them. Kimshung is our last son and is studying class 4 in the Blessings School. Therefore, we are hopefully praying for your kind support and prayers. Your affectionate care to develop our children is a blessing. I and my family will remain ever thankful for you.

Yours faithfully, S. Khashimla"

"Dear Madam/Sir,

I really thank God for giving me such an opportunity to share with you. My name is Hopeson Shanglai. I have one brother and four sisters. They all are younger to me. My mom and dad are cultivators. My family is so big that my parents alone cannot afford us a proper education. We are still living in poverty and by hand to mouth. I myself am doing graduation and I face a lot of problems both physically and financially. Here in our hilly region it is very hard to earn money. And therefore, I ask your sympathy to look upon my family weaknesses and give us your kind help and cares to my younger sisters in their studies. We will always remember you in our prayers. Thanking you,

Hopeson Shanglai
